

Itziar González Viros in the course “Resilient Strategies in Risk Situations” by prof. Gaia Redaelli will expose the project of the La Rambla de Catalunya in Barcelone, result of the international Competition she won in 2017 with an extended multidisciplinary group, including architects, urban planners, philosophers, anthropologists.... The project is work in progress and - defined as a Cooperative project – is a participatory and bottom-up governance including people of the suburb and citizens’ associations.
